3. Further Information

The Administration of the American International School-Salzburg would like to emphasize that arriving to the school on the arrival days is critically important for all boarding students. Full- and 5-day boarders who arrive at the school on the 4th of September will be scheduled last and may not be able to schedule some desired courses. Important orientation meetings requiring the attendance of all boarders at AIS-Salzburg will begin on Monday evening, September 8th at 18:00. All students who reside in the school's dormitories must be in attendance.

Please return this form by fax, mail, or e-mail to the contact addresses below before August 31, 2020. Thank you.
