The American International School-Salzburg is an independent, nonsectarian, non-denominational, private educational institution offering college-preparatory, secondary educational programming to students of any nationality between the ages of 12 and 19 who are accepted after completing the admissions process.

In its admissions decision, the AIS-Salzburg administration will try to establish a diverse student body representative of a wide variety of students from various backgrounds in order to emphasize our belief that diversity and understanding are essential elements in an international education. This is detailed in the AIS-Salzburg Equality & Diversity Policy.

The school will process applications in a timely way and maintain clear communication with the applicant and family. As a school in which English is the language of instruction, applications will be reviewed with the applicant's proficiency level in English as a fundamental criteria. Further criteria include:

- the applicant's previous academic record and conclusions about the student's academic promise;*
- evidence of plans to attend university programs following completion of secondary schooling;*
- review of confidential recommendations received, and (4) evidence of agreement with the school's expectations, policies and procedures.*
- level of maturity as recognized through application documentation and possible direct interview.*

The school reserves the right to deny admission or revoke a previous decision for admission if it is discovered that false information was provided the school through the admission process.

Thank you for your interest in the American International School-Salzburg. We look forward to getting to know you through your application.

Admissions Process

The American International School-Salzburg is an independent, nonsectarian, non-denominational, private educational institution offering college-preparatory, secondary educational programming to students of any nationality between the ages of 12 and 19 who are accepted after completing the admissions process.

In its admissions decisions, the AIS-Salzburg Admissions Team will try to establish a diverse student body representative of a wide variety of students from various backgrounds in order to emphasize our belief that diversity and understanding are essential elements in an international education. This is detailed in the AIS-Salzburg Equality and Diversity Policy (here).

AIS-Salzburg will process applications in a timely way and maintain clear communication with the applicant and family. As a school in which English is the language of instruction, applications will be reviewed with the applicant's English proficiency-level as a key criteria. Further criteria which guide admissions decisions include:

- the applicant's previous academic record and conclusions drawn about the student's academic promise,
- evidence of plans to attend university program following completion of secondary schooling,
- review of confidential recommendations received,
- evidence of agreement with the school's expectations, policies and requirements, and
- the level of maturity as recognized through application documentation and a personal interview.

A completed application includes the following:

1. Submission of an accurately-completed Student Application Form along with recent photo.
2. Payment of the application fee (€ 150.00)
3. Submission of up-to-date copies of original school transcripts and reports with translation (if necessary) which include the previous academic year for applicants for grades 7 through 9, and records representing any of the high school years (grades 9 through 12) for those applicants seeking enrollment at AIS-Salzburg in grades 10, 11, or 12, and complete high school transcripts with proof of diploma reception for all post-graduate applicants.
4. Submission of a copy of the applicant's current, valid passport photo page.
5. Submission of copies of any relevant visas or residency permits that are relevant to living and studying in Salzburg, Austria.
6. Reception of a confidential reference from the most-recent English and mathematics instructors.
7. A visit to the school, including interview with the applicant or an online visit with an Admissions Team member.

Once all of the following are received, the AIS-Salzburg Admissions Team will review and discuss the application. An admission decision, once made, will be communicated with the student and parents immediately afterwards. In some cases, the Admissions Team may request clarification, further information, or a language proficiency test either at the school or with a proctor.

AIS-Salzburg has a rolling admissions process and accepts and processes student applications at any time during the year.

For payment of the application fee, please transfer the amount to the AIS-Salzburg bank account in Salzburg:
